Course description:
Health and illness are not simply biological phenomena but are influenced by social, political, economic and cultural background. This course examines social contexts of health, illness and health care and is designed to provide a broad overview of the field of sociology of health. It is also explored how the social categories of gender, race, ethnicity, and social class affect both illness and health care system. Topics include history of medicine, bioethics, health care professions, social determinants of health and illness, community health, individual health behaviors and health care organizations.

Objectives:
At the end of the course, the student will be able to:
- Become familiar with some of the key works in the sociology of health
- Gain good understanding of social contexts of health, illness and health care
- Describe health policy and community implications of sociology of health
- Understand current social theories and knowledge about health-related perceptions, behaviors of individuals, and health care organizations
- Think critically about social arrangements related to health, illness and health care organizations

Teaching and learning methods:
Teaching strategies include lecture and discussion. Students are expected to read course materials prior to the class, raise questions, and come prepared to discuss the issues on topics of the day.

Class attendance/participation:
One point deduction per one missed class. The first two missed activities will not affect total points. A make-up will be considered only if the student submits a note from a hospital or other PROFESSIONAL individual or organization (up to twice per semester). A make-up will include additional reading materials and a brief paper. A make-up must be completed within 2 weeks after the missed class. (Students need to submit a note from professional individual/organization before they start a make-up process.) No texting in class – A student texting in class is not considered attended/participated in the class. Class disruptions will be a subject of point deduction from your participation grade.

Assignments (001):
All assignments are to be completed on Canvas. No late assignments will be accepted. There won’t be any make-up or bonus points. Single-spaced (Times New Roman, 12 pts) or text entry on Canvas. Due 8 am every Wednesday, except the last assignment. The student can see any course materials and own class notes but should not collaborate with or seek help from other people. If the student uses materials outside of the course, the source should be properly cited. Assignments will be based on lectures and reading materials. Please ask another question for a missed lecture in advance.

Readings:
All reading materials are available on Canvas.

Faculty and student responsibilities:

All students are expected to maintain professional behavior in the classroom setting, according to the Student Code, spelled out in the Student Handbook. Students have specific rights in the classroom as detailed in Article III of the Code. The Code also specifies proscribed conduct (Article XI) that involves cheating on tests, plagiarism, and/or collusion, as well as fraud, theft, etc. Students should read the Code carefully and know they are responsible for the content. According to Faculty Rules and Regulations, it is the faculty responsibility to enforce responsible classroom behaviors, beginning with verbal warnings and progressing to dismissal from class and a failing grade. Students have the right to appeal such action to the Student Behavior Committee.

The student must understand and be familiar with the University of Utah Student Code http://www.admin.utah.edu/ppmanual/8/8-10.html. The failure to comply with the student code, including academic misconduct, may result in the serious consequence such as failure in the course, and/or expulsion from the university.

Americans with Disabilities Act (ADA) Statement: The University of Utah seeks to provide equal access to its programs, services and activities for people with disabilities. If you will need accommodations in the class, reasonable prior notice needs to be given to the Center for Disability Services (CDS), 162 Union Building, 581-5020 (V/TDD). CDS will work with you and the instructor to make arrangements for accommodations.

About CEL option (Section 002)

No student is required to participate in a service placement that creates a religious, political and/or moral conflict for the student.

Services:
- 2-3 hours/week for at least 13 weeks
- At the beginning of the semester, the student will discuss service learning placement with the instructor to choose an organization that fit both the organization’s needs and the student’s interest.
- There will be an orientation session so the student can prepare for CEL. The topics will include introduction to CEL, introduction of community partners, expectations to and from students, what the student would do at a community organization, how to solve/deal with problems if the student experiences them.
- The student will sign risk management and liability form and submit to the instructor before the student starts services.
- Service interactions in the community will respond to the needs of community partners.
- Service content will be decided based on community partners’ needs.
- Community partners will be involved in the evaluation of the service. (The instructor will visit the community organizations to discuss student performance with community partners.)

Reflections:

Online: The students are expected to post reflections every week and participate in discussion on Canvas. The discussion will be closed at the end of a week (Sunday morning) every week.
- Reflection will be guided by the instructor. Specific questions to start discussion will be posted each week.
CEL presentation:
The student will present what she or he learned from CEL. Community partners will be invited.
